

Parentheses

1. Copy these sentences in your book and put a pair of brackets around the text that gives extra information to the sentence. Remember this text should be a subordinate clause (it shouldn't make sense on its own).

Amy who was 11 had beans on toast for breakfast.

The football stadium which is just around the corner from the school is giving away free tickets for tomorrow's game.

My brother who thinks he's the best dancer in the world is performing in front of 100 people tomorrow.

My sister who is called Kate is having a birthday party tomorrow.

2. Below are some sentences. Fill in some information inside the brackets. Remember the information inside the brackets shouldn't make sense on its own.

You will be able to create an alien ( ) like Ogg.

You will need some slime ( ) and a pair of eyeballs.

Make sure you wash your hands ( ) before you start.

Ogg the alien ( ) would love a new friend.

The aliens ( ) have crash landed in our playground.

who are really scary

who is from the planet Boohbar

and your fingernails

if you follow these instructions

which is green coloured

